

Recording medicines prescribed elsewhere into the GP practice record

When GP practices receive a patient's discharge note from an alternative care setting, information on any prescribed medications should be added to their GP practice record.

To access NHS Digital guidance click here